You're Like that Dreamy Moon.

By RAY L. DEERWESTER.
and WALTER O. DEERWESTER.

Moderato.

1. When the moon is
2. And the moonbeams shin - ing bright - ly, ... In a cloud - less star - lit sky, ... And the played a - round us, ... In the still - ness of the hour, ... And I shad - ows creep - ing o'er us, ... Showed the love - light in your eyes.

kissed you and car - ressed you, . . . While I whis - pered this a - gain, ...

CHORUS.

You're like that dream - y moon, ... You're like that dream - y moon, ... When it shines so bright at night, ... Making all this world so light. When it is shin - ing clear, ... I think of you, my dear, ... When you came and stole my heart a - way like that dream - y moon. You're moon. . .

*Allow Me To Teach You To Play This Song
Without a Penny Cost To You!*

AN OPEN LETTER

Dear Reader—

Will you accept positive definite proof from me that I can help you teach yourself to play the piano in a very short time?

*Here is my proposition to you—phone me or stop at the studio and tell me when you can take a trial lesson—a lesson
that will not cost you a single penny.*

After you take the free trial Lesson I'll leave it entirely to you—whether you think I can help you teach yourself to play.

*Years of experience and hundreds of satisfied students as reference—do not hesitate
while others are learning to play!
Sincerely yours*

Ray L. Deerwester

This organization years ago created the original method of teaching syncopated music—today well known, accepted in many cities.

Now we have written this song and will teach you to play it without a penny cost to you.

The more you know about this method of learning to play as compared to any or all other methods—the better it will be for both of us.

Surprise your friends—let us teach you to play this popular song as a no cost trial lesson, or if you now play we will help you to play it better.
